Details

This Mother's day Flowers, Scents and Treats you can treat your Mum or Grandma with a little bit of everything. She can enjoy the beautiful blossoming rose plant for many months, making it a much superior alternative to a short lived bunch of flowers. There is a selection of luxurious chocolates and treats such as the Lindt Master Chocolatier box, to share (or not to share) to enjoy through the day as well as beautiful scents from the springtime candle and the lightly scented willow & bluebell hand cream, as no hard working Mum can ever have too much hand lotion. This gift basket is the perfect way to treat your Mum, Grandma or mother of your children not only on mothers day but also throughout the year, and on other other special occasions such as her birthday.
