Details

The classic Cheese & Wine Hamper can be as exciting or as pedestrian as you want to make it. If you like lots of different flavours served alongside two fabulous wines in a luxury wicker hamper, then this classic may be ready for the road. This Hamper oozes sophistication with a splash of fun, even by admiring the bright colours, it brings a smile to your face. With four cheeses, this Hamper is perfect for a wine tasting evening or for a gift for someone who enjoys the finer things in life. With the two bottles of wine and savoury food choice, we would recommend that this Hamper is possibly for an older audience, however, there is nothing to stop a younger person with a defined palette loving this Hamper just as much, if not more. Cheese makes you happy, fact. When cheese is broken down by the body it becomes opioids, when you have these delicacies along with gourmet olives, preserves and soda bread toasts, we have handed you all the finest things in life on a big shiny platter (well a beautiful wicker hamper, with ribbons and their name on it). It wouldn't have all of life's luxuries without chocolate, a box of chocolate truffles was a must, something sweet amongst the savoury backdrop of the majority of the contents. Chocolate apple thins are also included, something fun, in a beautiful presentation box, which adds to the exquisite taste of this Hamper. A cheese master is a cheesemonger, but did you know a cheese lover is a turophile, however, everyone loves this Luxury Cheese & Wine Hamper. As people get older, they appreciate these finer things in life, nights in and a proper bottle of wine, luxury people deserve these luxury products. A Hamper as versatile as this, you should treat them to it for their Birthday, for Christmas, any occasion, or do we even need an occasion to enjoy these delicacies, just good company.
