Quick Overview

Frugi clothing really is something to get excited about. Fab designs that children and parents love with all kinds of wonderful colours and playful prints. Frugi clothing is made from soft organic cotton that's kind to sensitive skin making it eczema friendly. Fair trade and organic certified Frugi cotton isn't sprayed with any chemical pesticides that can harm the environment, the cotton farmers and your skin so it's super eco-friendly.

Details

Make a splash with this cute organic cotton babygrow featuring an all-over pattern of swimming otters with a blue trim. Sizes up to 12 months have fold-back scratch mitts to stop baby from scratching their face and keep little hands warm at night. Toes will be snug all tucked inside. This organic cotton babygrow has poppers going down the centre and has been cut to fit over cloth nappies. Team up with a matching bodysuit and other items from the range for a fabulous Frugi baby outfit.
