Details

Frugi clothing really is something to get excited about. Fab designs that children and parents love with all kinds of wonderful colours and playful prints. Frugi clothing is made from soft organic cotton that's kind to sensitive skin making it eczema friendly. Fair trade and organic certified Frugi cotton isn't sprayed with any chemical pesticides that can harm the environment, the cotton farmers and your skin so it's super eco-friendly. Everything is made in Fair trade factories in India where employees are given a fair wage as well as access to a free GP for them and their families. Planet Frugi, we care what kids wear.
