Details

All that stands between the graduate and the top of the ladder is the ladder. Your schooling may be over, but remember that your education still continues. A graduation ceremony is an event where the commencement speaker tells thousands of students dressed in identical caps and gowns that “individuality” is the key to success. The Graduate. An investment in knowledge always pays the best interest. Graduation is only a concept. In real life every day you graduate. Graduation is a process that goes on until the last day of your life. If you can grasp that, you’ll make a difference. The roots of education are bitter, but the fruit is sweet. The tassel is worth the hassle! Education is what survives when what has been learned has been forgotten. Graduation day is tough for adults. They go to the ceremony as parents. They come home as contemporaries. After half a life of child-raising, they are suddenly unemployed.
