Details

Christmas Conviviality is a delightful gift, designed specifically to brighten up someone's day on a cold Christmas day. For this reason we chose to give it a cheerful yellow colour theme. The colour theme helps to tie the products together but the products can't be picked solely on the colour of their packaging obviously, so we ensure that they are combined harmoniously in regard to taste and purpose also. Only when the products meet all these criteria can they be put together to form a gift. In regards to Christmas Conviviality the colours work to make the gift look friendly and happy and the products themselves give an air of cheerfulness and and Christmas joy. The way this is achieved is by having two of the products be dedicated 'Christmas products', the Christmas Pudding and Mini Christmas Chocolate Cake are only found at Christmas time so when someone sees them in their gift they will have no doubt that they are receiving a Christmas present. The rest of the snacks and the gorgeous Luscombe Sparkling Apple Crush are enjoyed by our customers all year round and can only get better at Christmas. This gift is mainly filled with sweet treats to be enjoyed, a personal favourite in our office is the Caramel Fingers from Holmes Bakery, absolutely delicious! The reason people return year after year to us for Christmas presents, for themselves and others, is the time and care that goes into the creation and packing of our gifts, that's what sets us apart. We understand that most Christmas Convivialities will be sent as gifts to other people and we send them so that when they are received by the recipient they will be able to tell the love and care that went into sending it in the first place. If you are looking for the perfect gift to send to your friends or family then you have found it in the Christmas Conviviality.
