Details

Our alcohol-free hamper range is characterised by our desire to create better, modern food hampers that celebrate high quality produce with a variation of flavours at a cheap price. As a hamper company we believe that high quality foods overrule the inclusion of mediocre alcohol, and we wanted to share our passion about excellent foods with our customers. The cheap Scandium hamper has a perfect blend of both savoury and sweet snacks to suit everyone's tastes. When designing our alcohol-free Scandium gift hamper, we reserved foods and snacks which are a little bit special, introducing high quality food elements, which are memorable, practical and distinctive. In this Scandium hamper you will find single estate chocolate truffles, and cucumber relish that make this alcohol-free hamper that extra bit more special. The Scandium Alcohol-Free Hamper has an uplifting blue colour scheme throughout, which helps to tie the products together to make this more than just a selection of products but a great cheap gift. When the recipient begins to unpack their Great Taste Branded ECO-paq filled with treats and goodies they will surely notice the bold blue colours appearing throughout and it will put a smile on their face. Although we call this alcohol-free hamper cheap, we by no means cut on the quality of products within. It is simply the cheapest option available in our cheap hamper range. This alcohol-free hamper is the perfect size for sharing within a small family or even for an individual to enjoy themselves. It is a very versatile product and we take pride in how we can make this gift specific to the desired occasion. Only once the products are harmonious in colour, taste and purpose was the hamper finalised. When we critique and perfect our hampers to this level we know that our customers will be happy with them.
