Banquets of baked goods and a collection of chocolates, let someone know they are in your thoughts this year. Even if separated by distance, we can still share love and joy this Christmas.

Details

Christmas Thoughts has been updated for 2021, we think it looks fabulous with the purple colour theme flowing through the products. With a mixture of baked goods and chocolates, Christmas thoughts focuses on the indulgent sides of Christmas. Gorging on premium quality foods this Christmas sounds like something we can get behind, Christmas Thoughts make this very easy for the recipient. We know some people are fussy and it is incredibly hard to buy gifts for them during the Christmas season. However, Christmas Thoughts contains no unusual flavours, they are all products that everyone will appreciate and be able to enjoy. As we know there is nothing worse than receiving something that you can't enjoy fully. Although there is a purple colour theme, we can guarantee that this is in no way a feminine Gift Box, it can be enjoyed by anyone, of any age also. We don't like to define our gifts by gender, rather by occasion, no one should be disadvantaged due to personal preferences and tastes. This year we are also launching our new Gift Boxes, which read; A little box of happiness just for you! These boxes focus on the quantity of items we can fit into a box without compromising our quality. We are excited to see what you think of our new boxes, we really love them.
