Details

Diabetes is life-long and without planning, you may not be able to indulge yourself on the occasional sweet treat. This Gift Box is bright and colourful and it contains an array of luxurious food products which diabetics can enjoy. We have researched even the minute details, did you know that peppermint, found in the bright green box of tea bags, can lower blood sugar levels, something which is critical to diabetics. Yet at first glance this may not seem tailored at all. Gifts need to be joyous and bring happiness, this gift cannot simply be a shopping list for a diabetic, but contain products they might not usually buy for themselves. These are products they can still enjoy without worrying, like anyone else would. Seafood is very high in omega-3, this helps to keep a healthy heart, something which is always important but especially in diabetic patients, we include seaweed crisps, something fun and quirky but still very enjoyable. There is a variety of products which can be enjoyed without worry for a diabetic, such as crisps and biscuits, we have found healthy options which can be eaten yet still enjoyed. These are not substitute items which are bland and flavourless, they are healthy alternatives, yet products everyone can still enjoy. Turmeric, which is also present in the tea bags helps to stabilize the body's blood sugar levels, the key component for a diabetic, yet this is an enjoyable way to enjoy this plant. Gourmet dried figs are also a must for a diabetic, sweet in flavour but packed with fibre, helping to promote insulin function in the body. Sugar-free sweets are fun, flavoursome and perfect to finish off this Gift Box, Love Bears were created to be healthy and for consumers with dietary requirements, bright, colourful and tasty, perfect!
