Details

We found out lately that Healthy gift baskets got more interest and demand, that's why we decided to create something festive and healthy at the same time. We wanted to show people that everything is possible and your celebration can be as beautiful as it can be with a healthy alternatives. So we carefully picked the best products from our healthy range and designed a coloured gift basket for your demand. This engaging gift basket has a bit of savoury and a bit of sweet but the main thing almost everything in this gift basket is healthy. Most of contents are gluten free for all who are gluten intolerant, also you will find some vegan products for the those who cares about whole world. Such a delicate gift basket with a significant importance. While you are still thinking about that healthy feast we can assure you will get a really good value celebratory gift. For example Willies Cacao Truffles has been chosen as our gift basket center piece also vegan and gluten free. We are sure you will need some confection for a good feast. Along with all other guilt free sweets, i.e. sugar-free love bear gummies, you will find some alcohol-free drinks. As a good alternative for a cold drink this basket contains a natural guilt free coconut water and certainly a little collection of healthy teas. For a real savory lovers we have added garlic stuffed olives with all clean ingredients and also once you open this basket you will find few gourmet jars with some delicious figs, anchovies and truffles. As far as we mentioned this gift basket has a lot to offer and you will agree. Send this brilliant gift basket to your friend, lover or person you thinking of - and you will not go wrong.
