Details

Lactose Free Gift Basket is specially designed gift basket with just dairy free products in it. This dairy free gift basket can be a brilliant gift idea for those who are lactose intolerant or just do not use anything with dairy. We have carefully picked our products, read all the labels just to make sure this dietary gift basket is definitely lactose free. You would be surprised how many products are containing lactose. Anyway, going further a lot of food producers are reacting to people's diets and health conditions and making more dairy free alternatives. In this enjoyable Lactose Free Gift Basket you will find quite a few appetizer type of foods as olives and veggie snacks. Even though, many baked goods, candies and cakes contain lactose, however, we do stock some baked goodies without any dairy, which you will find in this scrumptious gift basket. The recipient of the basket will find lactose free treats as packets of dark chocolate, dairy free fudge, cinammon brownies or almond biscotti. A selection of products in this gift basket is worth a try - especially for someone with lactose intolerance. Despite the fact this lactose free gift basket had limited spectrum of choice, we have created a pleasant set of high quality products to mark any occasion you want.
