Details

To contribute to ecological sustainability we have designed a gift basket filled with eco friendly goodies. By creating this cheerful looking ecological friendly gift basket we wanted to be able to offer an ecological sustainable gift basket for those who know how important is our own impact on the planet. This appealing gift basket was thoroughly built from the products made taking our planet into account. Most of the products in this scrumptious gift basket are organic and organic farms use less energy, release less carbon emissions and foster more biodiversity. Also, all our vegan products in this eco friendly gift basket like coconut water, willies cacao dark chocolate helps us to be more ecological sustainable. Each day vegan diet saves 1 animal's life, 4200 l water, 45 pounds of grains, 9.1 kg co2 and 30 ft2 of forest land. As this colourful gift basket centre piece have been chosen as a nut butter made from the most sustainable nut in a world - Hazelnut. Hazelnuts are a great example of sustainable agriculture. Not only do they require little water and minimal upkeep, but they can thrive in harsh soils where other plants would fail. In a fact that this delightful and eco friendly gift basket is full of conscious product choices, this multi coloured gift basket is probably all what this planet lover would want. From a perspective of a gift presentation - this ecological sustainable gift basket looks fun, happy and cheerful. So if you were thinking how to cheer somebody up and be ecological sustainable at the same time - we have what to offer - a planet friendly scrumptious gift basket.
