Details

Good food certainly helps in recovering when we are unwell, that is why we have created get well gifts filled with fresh fruit and healthy snacks too. Not only that, from time to time recovering can be a lengthy process, and there is only so much Netflix we can watch sometimes. Understanding this, we included some puzzles in our gifts to refresh the mind and hopefully make the time to recovery pass a bit quicker. When we are feeling unwell we generally need to eat more fruit as a source of extra vitamins and minerals, these Cool Get Well Gifts include a fruit pack to do just that. Including oranges and green and red apples as a key source of vitamin C to boost immunity and energy levels. The other snack items within these Cool Get Well Gifts are mainly chocolately such as chocolate enrobed fruit mango, chocolate butter cups, and a handcrafted chocolate bar. When we are feeling under the weather we all appreciate a piece of chocolate with a cuppa tea to warm the heart. On the entertainment side, our Cool Get Well Gifts include a bucket list to complete once they are feeling healthy and well again, as well as a brainteaser puzzle book to complete now while they are on the mend. We have created a range of Get Well Gifts to revitalise the body and the mind. All of our Get Well Gifts include healthy snacks, a fruit pack, and brain teasing puzzles. On top of that, all of our Get Well Gifts have a unique colour theme flowing through them, each carrying different sentiments with them. For these Cool Get Well Gifts in particular, the colour green is prevalent symbolising harmony and good health. When the recipient begins to unpack their gift they will feel waves of relaxation and revitalisation thanks to the generous colour theme flowing throughout. The green tones presented throughout these Get Well Gifts are a great way to send positive vibes and let someone know you are thinking of them. Our Get Well gifts are unisex and would be appreciated by anyone who enjoys fruit, chocolate snacks and completing puzzles. They will be on the mend in no time with our Get Well Gifts!
