Thinking of the perfect get well gift to send a friend, family member, or even colleague can be a tricky task. However with our all new range of get well gifts we have create a variety of get well gifts for you to choose from. All of our get well gifts contain the same idea of healthy snacks, fruit and light entertainment. When we aren't feeling ourselves one of the best ways to pick ourselves up is by eating healthy fruit and vegetables. With this thought in mind we have included yummy healthy snacks in our all of get well gifts. For this Heavenly Get Well Gifts basket in particular, we included oranges, and green and red apples providing a real source of vitamin C to boost immunity. If you know someone who loves coconut, this Heavenly Get Well Gifts would be perfect as it includes coconut water, coconut bites, and coconut sugar based chocolate spread, an organic food which is renowned to have many health benefits. Of course when we are feeling under the weather it is best to eat healthy, however we know and understand that everyone enjoys chocolate, and therefore we made sure to include a chocolate bar, chocolate tea biscuits, and other chocolate surprises. To make the road to recovery a little more relaxing we included a colouring book and pencils which according to a study by the University of the West of England, reduces stress and anxiety. When we think of heavenly relaxation, we think of blue skies and peace. With this thought in mind, we created a blue colour theme within this Heavenly Get Well Gifts Basket. The recipient will be feeling tranquil and in heaven when unpacking their get well gift of fruit, snacks, and colouring. We believe sending one of our get well gifts is the best way to send positive vibes and make someone smile when they are feeling under the weather. Our Get Well gifts are unisex and would be appreciated by anyone who enjoys fruit, chocolate snacks and completing puzzles. They will be on the mend in no time with our Get Well Gifts!
