Details

Our new Welcome Event Gifts include an abundance of snacks to be shared around the office, at an event, or enjoyed by individuals working from home. Each basket also contains an East of India item, making the gift a little bit more personal. We know that Tea and Coffee are essential for any work event, which is why we've included plenty of it in the Brave Welcome Gift. A cup of tea can help to reduce stress, calm nerves, and lift spirits so we've included a double helping of it in this Welcome Gift. We've added Earl Grey, as it helps us to relax and improves our focus, just what we require throughout the working day. Of course, we've included a classic Breakfast Tea as well. On top of this, we've included a selection of city-roasted coffee bags. They work exactly like a tea bag and act as a quick and easy way to get your caffeine fix. We went big on the chocolate in this basket. From chocolate-covered caramel fingers to chocolate-covered chickpeas, chocolate coconut bites to chocolate-covered mango, our chocolate lovers will most definitely be satisfied with the Brave Welcome Gift. All of these treats are made by local artisan producers, so they are off the highest quality and are perfect for sharing around the office, or at an event. Of course, we added some biscuits (perfect for dunking) and a packet of sweets for those with a sweet tooth. This basket is made complete by the inclusion of a pocket-size notebook by East of India- ideal for writing notes in a meeting or conspiring over a coffee break with a colleague!
