Details

"Our New Welcome Event Gifts include an abundance of snacks to be shared around the office, at an event or enjoyed by individuals working from home. Each basket also contains an East of India item making the gift a little bit more personal. We know that Tea and Coffee are essential for any work event, whether it be virtual, physical or just simply a day in the office. That's why we have included plenty of it in this Inspirational Welcome Hamper. Tea can work wonders- not only can it reduce stress and calm nerves, but it also helps to boost our mood and motivation. For that reason, we've included a double helping of it in this Gift Hamper. In addition to a classic Breakfast Tea, we've included Green Tea. This can help to induce calm but also gives us an energy boost as it contains just a little bit of caffeine. For those who want a true caffeine fix, we've included a selection of city-roasted coffee bags. They work exactly the same way as Tea Bags- just stick them in a mug, add hot water, let it brew and you're good to go. To mix it up a bit, we've also included 4 refreshing sparkling lemonades, making this basket suitable for anyone and everyone. This Gift Hamper contains an abundance of snacks that can be shared around the office, at an event, or at home with the family. Similarly, they can be enjoyed by an individual working from home or attending a virtual event from the sofa. From crisps to pretzels, jelly sweets and caramel buttons, this basket really does have something for everyone. There are strong caramel flavours throughout this basket, and fruity flavours are also present in the form of jelly sweets, chocolate covered mango and fruity lemonades. We've also included a double helping of traditional butter fudge, made locally here in Northern Ireland. Designed with bright colours, and bold flavours, this basket exudes positivity and gifting it to someone will help create that feeling of togetherness that is so hard to do when working apart.
