Details

Christmas is a wonderful period to spend time with loved ones who you might not normally get to see. During the holiday season we are constantly encouraged to be joyful and spread Christmas spirit. There are many ways to do this. But personally we think the best way to spread Christmas spirit is by sending the Angelic Array Party Gift Hamper. You may be wondering, why do we call this a party hamper? For a clear reason, the inclusion of four bottles of wine to really get the party started this Christmas time. The Angelic Array was designed for Christmas 2021 with a selection of new products, along with traditional Christmas Fayre such as luxury mince pies, a rich Christmas pudding, a chocolate yule log, and a spiced apple cake. If the recipient doesn't fancy an alcoholic drink, we have also included organic Nemi tea, a Belfast brew coffee or an orange hot chocolate. There are bright, warm colours flowing through this hamper. The reds, yellows, greens, and purples add true heart-warming sentiments to the hamper, sending Christmas spirit to wherever it is sent. You can be sure that the recipient of this hamper will experience an Angelic Array upon opening the box, reading their personalised gift message from you, unpacking, and sampling the layers of goodies tucked away inside. This gift arrives in one of our brand new Great Taste Branded ECO-paq. As you can see from the picture these boxes look absolutely fantastic. Practical, modern, slick and yet still full of character, they add so much to our Christmas Gifts. When the recipient has scoffed all of the amazing contents inside, they can reuse the box time and time again. It truly is a gift in itself!
