Details

Yesteryear Tastes; Say hello to one of the stars of our brand new entry to the Simply Tasteful tea and biscuit range of gifts, the Yesteryear Tastes gift basket. The Yesteryear Tastes gift is one of our largest tea and biscuits gifts, making it perfect as a family gift or for a small team, with products that can be shared and enjoyed together, and with a variety of tastes that means there will be a favourite for everyone to enjoy. For our design process we focused on bringing together the foods and treats that have been timeless favourites, following customer feedback and our own taste buds to deliver flavour combinations that will delight anyone lucky enough to find this gift on their doorstep. The Yesteryear Tastes gift basket is one of seven from our brand new Simple Tasteful range of gifts. When we created these new ranges of gifts we had a desire to change how we, and therefore our customers, envision our gift baskets. These baskets weren't created along traditional marketing lines, instead created with a vision of how they would be enjoyed and perceived by their recipients. For our Tea and Biscuits style of gifts, we considered what message we would want to send, the underlying expectations that exist around any gifting occasion, and we discovered that a tasteful and simple approach resonated with our customers the most. We leveraged our years of experience to distil down the core principals of a tea and biscuit gift, keeping only what our customers want, and using our energy on perfecting our creation into something we would send to our own family, friends, and co-workers with pride and confidence in a job well done. All these fantastic items are carefully arranged by our experienced gift creators, using beautiful wicker gift baskets from sustainable suppliers, culminating in gifts that make a statement on arrival, and even more so when the hand wrapped packaging is pulled away to reveal the mountain of delicious foods and treats inside the Yesteryear Tastes gift.
