Details

Ever since we began as a tiny business way back when, wine and cheese has always been a keystone of our gift basket catalogue, it's so popular it practically defines the gift basket genre, so when we laid out our plans for our new Simply Flavourful range of savoury gift baskets, we knew that wine and cheese baskets would perform a key role in establishing the tone and vision of our new range. To this end we reviewed our years of experience to distil down what makes a wine and cheese gift desirable and successful, taking sales data, customer feedback, and personal experience together to form a complete picture. The result is a selection of wine and cheese gifts that we believe will satisfy all our customers gifting needs. Cheesy Sunshine Tipple begins the range at the lower end of wine and cheese price range, without sacrificing any of the key products that we know our customers desire. This gift is ideal for a singular recipient, featuring a bottle of premium wine, paired with two gourmet cheeses from local producers. This is accompanied by a carefully selected choice of treats to compliment the experience, with farmhouse chutney, gourmet soda bread toasts, and succulent biltong, just to name a few. When that gift basket arrives on their doorstep, we know you have vision for the excitement, the anticipation, and the enjoyment of the goodies you've had delivered specially for your lucky recipient. That's why every gift basket is hand crafted and gift wrapped to surpass your expectations, and leave a lasting impression long after the delicious contents have been eaten.
