Details

A new addition to our "Simply Flavourful" gift baskets, we feel the Pungent Punchiness savoury gift basket really encapsulates our vision for this new exciting range of gifts. Our main goal for launching this gift range was to communicate our passion for high quality delicious foods, joined together into a cohesive whole that is great than the sum of it's individual parts. Elegant yet bold red wine complements perfectly with a trio of locally sourced farmhouse cheeses, naturally leading to the inclusion of farmhouse chutneys and relish which provide a refresher for the palate with bright flavours to join the deep mellow flavours of traditional cheese. Gourmet soda bread toasts provide the perfect vehicle to deliver these mouth watering condiments to your awaiting taste buds, while sustainably sourced olive wait in the side lines to be popped into your mouth one by one to add a mature and indulgent twist to your savoury snacking.When your order arrives in our basket assembly room, one of our experienced basket creators takes it from start to finish through every step, from assembly, arrangement, gift wrapping, and packaging. This ensures every detail of your important gift is just as high quality and professional as if we were creating these gifts for our own family, not a single gift leaves our hands that we are not completely satisfied with.We envision the Pungent Punchiness gift basket as being the ideal gift for those who appreciate more mature tastes and the simple joys of bold and distinct flavours, and we're confident they'll be singing your praises from the rooftop when this beautiful gift arrives on their doorstep, so bring the simple joys of luxury flavours to someone special with the Pungent Punchiness gift today.
