Details

Imagine receiving an entire banquet on your doorstep, complete with wine and cheese, how that would brighten your day and fill your days with delicious foods to enjoy and savour. That's exactly what we have created with our Savouriciously Humongous gift basket, the largest offering from our brand new Simply Flavourful range of savoury gifts. We achieved this feasting feat by bringing together a veritable highlight reel of our favourite goodies from our savoury range and delicately balancing the spread with some choice inclusions. Sitting at the pinnacle of this humongous feast is a pair of premium wines, setting of the indulgent experience, quickly followed by the platter of three cheeses from local farmhouse producers. Of course a feast is meant to be shared, which is why we have included a wide array of tasty foods that compliment the baskets theme, such as gourmet soda bread toasts, with pate, chutney, and relish to accompany it, a selection of premium crisps, and handmade biltong for that umami kick. Of course no good feast should be missing it's dessert course, which is why here is also a variety of chocolatey treats such as swiss tea biscuits, and beautifully crispy chocolate apple sticks to be enjoyed perhaps over a cup of tea with friends, or curled up with a good book, truly relaxing and sinking into the moment that is just for you. All this delicious excitement is delicately packed in our giant wicker baskets, sourced from sustainable suppliers and lined with fabric, making the basket part of the gift itself, ideal for reuse as storage, decoration, or even reuse for another gift basket. Your gift will arrive carefully packed to keep it safe and sound during delivery, ready for the moment the box is opened to reveal your beautiful gift, professionally wrapped to keep everything in place, and a beautiful silk bow to add that special something.
