Details

The Chocolate Overload gift is part of our Simply Elegant range, a fresh new range for a new year, bringing together old favourites from one of our most successful baskets, and a whole new range of goodness to intrigue and delight. If this basket sounds familiar there's a reason why, the Chocolate Overload gift basket has been one of our most popular gifts all year round, managing to sustain it's Christmas popularity all the way through Valentine's Day, Mother's Day, and Easter. This popularity can only come from a gift with that special something, and we firmly believe this gift basket's secret lays in the delicate balance of rich indulgence and light snacking, which coupled together with the duo of premium wines provides an all-inclusive gift experience that has been proven to delight customers year after year. Updating this gift basket to bring it up to date with the high standards of our Simply Elegant range involved a delicate process of enhancing the existing products without sacrificing the items that you love. There are some items that are almost required for such a quintessential chocolate and wine gift, such as artisan chocolate truffles, chocolate enrobed mango and a freshly baked chocolate cake from a local farmhouse bakery. These indulgent treats sit comfortably side by side with fresh and unique flavours brought by swiss tea biscuits, chocolate crème filled wafers, and even champagne truffles to gift that celebratory sparkle to this very special gift.When that ring on the doorbell comes, and the beautiful gift basket arrives on their doorstep, you'll be able to rest easy knowing that it has been prepared and packed by our experienced team of gift basket creators, specially to give that wow moment to whoever your lucky recipient is.
