Details

For the Sparkling Chocolate Celebration gift basket we've chosen a sparkling Italian dry but sweet Prosecco which has a lovely balance of crispness and fruit flavours like apple, citrus, pear and a hint of melon. Our sparkling wine choices are hand selected to ensure quality is of a premium. Good fizz needs to be complimented by good food and that's exactly what we've achieved in this gift basket of delicious chocolate and sweet indulgences from world famous Swiss producers and less well known local British and Irish chocolate manufacturers. The result is a very chocolatey celebration wine gift package that is guaranteed to please. The variety of chocolate in this hamper is fantastic; from the chocolate dessert collection box, with an irresistible array of textures and flavours to please every palate, creating the ultimate chocolate indulgence, to beautifully sweet chocolate coated cherries, and even a fun hot chocolate on a stick! This hamper is filled with traditional flavours that everyone will be familiar with, without being boring, so you can be very confident that they will enjoy the taste of this hamper. Pairing this gift with the sparkling wine works even better to make it even more special to show a well thought out gift. All the items in our hampers are full-sized. We know it is sometimes tricky to shop online, never sure if the image you see is misleading or not but we assure you that all our products are as advertised full-sized products, we do not use sample sized products. We often hear from past and returning customers that they received more and better value for money than they were expecting in their hampers! What more could you ask for?
