Details

Often in life, there will be times where congratulations will be in order, whether that person is your co-worker, a friend, or within your family. Not always is a gift necessary, but for the big achievements, a gift basket is a perfect way to celebrate their success. When curating our new congratulations range, we deemed it important to create a selection of non-alcoholic gifts that primarily focused on the quality and selection of edible treats. The Non-Alcoholic Congratulations Gift is suitable for anyone as long as they like chocolate! In this gift basket, the recipient will find a wide selection of chocolate goodies of different tastes and textures. A favourite of ours is the Dessert Collection by Lily O'Brien, an indulgent box of assorted chocolates inspired by the world's best-loved desserts. There is a fresh chocolate celebration cake that can be enjoyed with the Earl Grey Ethical Tea by NEMI, a perfect combination. The gift comes in a deluxe satin white basket, neatly gift wrapped with silk ribbon and accompanied with a personalised congrats greetings card.
