Details

The Special Grandmother with Flowers Gift Basket is a popular and classic gift choice for those wishing to send a special gift for to a much loved Grandma. We've incorporated a collection of favourite baked treats, chocolates and tea and paired these with sentimental giftware. These include a beautiful floral patterned, fine bone china gift mug, inscripted with the word "Grandmother" and a lovely wooden picture by East of India with the wording "Grandma's House, Children Spoilt Here." A pretty flowering potted mini rose plant finishes a lovely gift that will definitely let a Grandma know just how much she is loved on Mother's Day, her Birthday, or any day of the year. The Special Grandmother With Flowers Gift Basket is presented in a pretty wicker gift basket, decorated with satin ribbons and bows, and accompanied by a special grandmother greetings card. The flowers are encased in a separate flower bag to protect them in transit.
