The chocolate choice in this hamper is amazing for sharing amongst a group, especially amongst a family group as there are two Sweet Boutique Chocolate Lolly included and a Lindt chocolate Bunny. There really is something for all the family in this hamper. The sophisticated pallet is also satisfied with this hamper with the Pandora Bell 70% Pulp Real Fruit Jellies that has the taste of fresh fruit bursts in every square and Skelligs Luxury Mint Creme Ganache Truffle Ballotin where it takes about 5 days to produce each batch of truffles and many more luxury treats for you to enjoy. With a colourful colour theme throughout this hamper it will be an exciting experience to receive and open that will definitely leave the recipient on your good side. This hamper is packed full of traditional flavours so will be pleasing for everyone. We understand that with gift hampers you run the risk of the recipient not liking what is inside, but the Moet Chocolate Extravaganza Hamper is a very safe bet, especially if you do not know the recipient well, as long as the recipient is a fan of chocolate and Champagne, as most people are, they are very likely to enjoy this gift. This hamper will make a very festive gift at Christmas time. Anyone would love to receive this gift around Christmas time, with the chocolate bunny, and the hot chocolate drink pods to help keep you warm that would pair very nicely with the novelty mallow shapes. We think this hamper really comes into its own at Christmas. It makes the perfect Christmas present that the whole family can enjoy together.
