Quick Overview

Healthy & natural ingredients are the mainstay of this wholesome Basket filled with farmhouse style produce including just baked seasonal treats.

Details

Christmas Earth focuses on the traditional foods that are associated with the festive season. With earthy colours and flavours, this Gift Basket is so easily versatile for who it can be sent to. The flavours are traditional but not bland, and it can be enjoyed by everyone. With rich Christmas pudding, mince pies and Christmas cake, this gift basket focuses on savoury and natural flavours through Christmas fayre products. Not exclusively, but marketed towards an older generation, with an appreciation for the traditional comfort foods rather than the contemporary fad products whose focal points are sugar and overwhelming flavours. Oat cookies and preservatives provide comfort during the cold winter months. The Christmas Earth Gift Basket contains a bottle of sparkling apple juice, this makes the Christmas Earth suitable for those who don't drink alcohol, this is a better alternative, it isn't cheap non-alcoholic versions of wine and beer. The Long Meadow Sparkling Apple Juice is a Great taste Award winner, which is so much better. Although traditional flavours are not bland, they are rich gourmet flavours which can be appreciated by a wide audience. There is also an exquisite slab of dark chocolate, which creates an element of eloquence to this Christmas basket, and for a splash of colour some 'worm' sweets, which are an office favourite. If you are looking for a Christmas gift and are stumped for what to get, you have landed in the right place. The Christmas Earth Gift Basket is perfect, for whoever the person is, they will enjoy this gourmet food hamper.
