Details

This Christmas hamper has been designed for those who want every item to be thoroughly enjoyed and remarked upon. With an amazing fifty-nine full-sized products that need to be spread across two hampers this Christmas hamper is amazing value for money. You will not be disappointed by the size, volume or weight of this hamper when it is received and marveled upon. The Duke's takes a traditional Christmas hamper with everything you would expect and want; all the Christmas fayre and blends it with 8 premium wines and lots of sweet treats to give it a sophisticated and modern twist while still keeping in line with a traditional Christmas hamper. Unlike with some other hamper companies, all fifty-nine products in this hamper are full-sized products, not sample sized so you will not be disappointed when receiving the hamper. We take the time and effort to hand design and hand pack all of our hampers in house, even at Christmas when we are at our busiest, so you know you are getting the best and most personal service possible. We think it is really important to get the best products possible for our hampers and so we locally source from across Britain and Ireland as well as from across Europe, supporting small businesses. This means that in your hamper you will find products from small artisan producers and will get to try something new rather than getting something that you already have in your cupboards for Christmas. All of this ties together to create an innovative Christmas gift that stands out in the Christmas hamper market as something special. We are able to give you an original gift as opposed to something that could be found on any supermarket shelf or a soulless gift given to you by a fulfilment centre.
