Details

One of our in-house designed Christmas baskets for families. The Family Favourites range is perfect as a gift for families with younger children. This is a hard demographic to buy a sophisticated gift for, how do you get foods which an adult will appreciate but also something which children can really enjoy. We have carefully amalgamated the finer chocolates, such as Lindt, with the more cheerful Cadburys. A key feature of the Family Favourites Christmas Hamper is the quartet of full-sized wines, which truly add an aura of grandeur and sophistication for the adult side of this Family Christmas gift. For adults there are baked goods, a Christmas pudding and two large boxes of chocolates. This Gift Basket although at first glance maybe doesn't look as sophisticated as some of our other creations, yet still contains the same core items which are opulent and truly appreciated by an adult. We know adults want the real good expensive stuff at a time like Christmas, a time to put your feet up and relax, amongst the mayhem. You can provide this for them in the form of a Gift Hamper, and you know the parents you have in mind will really appreciate this. Along with the children, who will want selection boxes for breakfast and nothing but sugar. Which throughout the year may be frowned upon, but at Christmas surely we can forgive them for the excitement? Some of the treats which are both adult and children friendly are sugar free, the Jealous Sweets Love Bears are a perfect alternative, when the children want a treat but maybe it is nearing bedtime, we have every angle covered for you this Christmas. We think we have combined the sophisticated with the fun perfectly, the balance between adult and children is exact, and instead of buying multiple gifts for a family, why not buy them this gift as a whole? We sure think you should.
