Details

"Provincial tastes are abundant in this luxury Christmas hamper filled with foods made by the region's micro food producers. Stocked with high quality items made with care and to traditional recipes, and combined with a selection of fine wines, making it perfect for exploring and sharing this Christmas. The Provincial Excellency truly is excellent. It takes a traditional Christmas Hamper and blends it with four old world premium wines to make something wonderful. We slowly and carefully select each item before it makes its way into our hampers so we know that each hamper will be harmonious in taste, theme, and look. This is especially important at Christmas time when we know our hampers are going to be sent as gifts. Compared to our competitors at this price range, we don't even compare, we are miles ahead. We have bigger products and more of them. We don't compromise on the quality of our products either. We personally try everything before it makes its way into our hampers so we know everything is of the highest quality. We pack all our hampers ourselves and we pride ourselves on the personal touches this allows us to give. We also understand that it is important to support local artisan producers and so we source products mainly from Britain and Ireland but also from wider asea across Europe. A Christmas hamper with 31 full-sized artisan food items and four good bottles of wines is hard to come by and almost impossible to find at such a price. You can see when you look at this hamper that we haven't just thrown together thirty odd items and added in some wines and called it a Christmas hamper. We know what it means to be a Christmas Hamper so have thought through the placement of our items and you can see this in what you get. Just have a look for yourself. Christmas is a wonderful time of year that inspires good moods and giving spirits. This Christmas why not lift somebody's mood by sending them the Provincial Excellency?"
