Details

The Queen's Hamper fits comfortably into our luxury Christmas hamper range with ninety gourmet full-sized products presented over three oversized hampers that will not leave you disappointed in the size, volume or weight of this hamper gift. We are really great value for money. Unlike other hamper companies, we don't just flood the market with expensive hampers filled with many bottles of wine and a few snacks alongside them. We understand that it is just as important to focus on good quality food alongside your alcoholic drinks and we don't let the wine take the spotlight away from the gourmet food or the Christmas fayre that is in The Queen's Hamper. Also unlike some hamper companies, we always use full-sized products so you will never feel cheated when you receive your gift. We don't just focus on how many products we can get in our hampers and leave it at that. That would be pointless. Throughout the year we spend our time gathering the very best products that we can find. We source gourmet products from small artisan producers from across Britain and Ireland as well as from across Europe to find the best quality products for you. This allows us to create luxury Christmas hampers that are bigger and better than the competition at more competitive prices. That's a win-win for us and for our customers. We are able to give you an original gift as opposed to something that could be found on any supermarket shelf or a soulless gift given to you by a fulfilment centre. Who isn't looking for that extra special touch at Christmas time? We take the time and effort to hand design and hand pack all of our hampers in house, even at Christmas the busiest time of year for us by far, so you know you are getting the best service possible.
