Quick Overview

No Christmas Hamper has ever sold as many units as our original Christmas Traditional Celebration Gift Hamper. This is the original classic updated for 2022.

Details

This year we've updated one of your all time Christmas Hamper favourites. Our Christmas Traditional Celebration hamper is one of a small group of hampers which are only available in November and December. It's simply a result of the composition of foods such as Christmas Pudding, Mince Pies and Christmas Cake mixed in with chocolates, shortbread, mint chocolates all of which are made by micro food producers. Every year we make a substantial but strictly limited number of the Traditional Celebration Hampers with the clear policy of selling out. Some years we have to put in extra orders to fulfil the demand in mid December, but we've made sure that we never have stock left over and we're also sure never to let any customers down. What does this mean for you, the customer? You know that we'll never let you down at the last minute and that we're committed to putting the best quality items into your hamper. When it comes to Christmas Hampers, we're a product specialist and we only want high quality producers to be included within our brand offer. Containing all the essential core elements for a Christmas Hamper, the Traditional Celebration is oozing in quality and taste, with luxury chocolates, truffles and quality Christmas fayre. There is something for everyone, with teas, and jams, to the extremely popular Lindt Chocolates. Celebrate in style this Christmas, with the Christmas Traditional Celebration Hamper.
