Details

Anniversary Gifts are difficult to buy. They are either only specific to the big Anniversaries which come around every ten years or they only refer to marriages. However there are many other types of Anniversaries and as a general rule, they are poorly catered for. In terms of ideas for what to send as an Anniversary Gift, we created the Anniversary Connoisseur Hamper. We use The Finest Products, Appropriate Personalisation and Professional Delivery, not just ensuring the gift is assembled perfectly, but that it stays that way on its journey to its destination. Although the Connoisseur term is more frequently used to describe afficionados of great tasting ability, we've taken the word to bring specific focus to the traditional tea and coffee gift basket design. We've selected Black Tea-bags, Coffee-Bags and then we've gathered in lots of wonderful types of dunking biscuits, which are perfect for going with them. We've rounded off this Anniversary Gift with a Ceramic Inspirational Message Mug and hand-drawn mini Happy Anniversary Iced Cake. We've placed a special emphasis in this gift hamper on our great tasting Tea and Coffee Bags. We hope that if we've got it right, then the Connoisseur's Anniversary Gift reviews will be overwhelmingly positive in the years to come.
