Quick Overview

If we were to predict which Christmas Hamper in 2022 will be the top seller in the UK market, quite a few of us in the office think that this will be amongst the leading contenders.

Details

With everything included in this spectacular Gift, wines, gourmet savoury foods, and a selection of sweet treats and indulgences for Christmas. With a beautiful green and red colour theme, this Hamper oozes Christmas sensations. Every product is criticised before it goes in to ensure it looks amazing, and is packaged with the utmost love and attention, to ensure the recipient knows how much love was intended when it was bought. We invite your assessment of whether price point trumps specification and whilst our Xmas Celebrations Duo Hamper is not simply a reduced version of our top selling Christmas Traditional Celebration Hamper, the overriding theme is one of an assortment of fine food gifts amalgamated to create a Christmas Hamper where all of the products will be enjoyed. With slightly different products than last year and a focus on only including the best traditional and most popularly versatile food items, the overriding objective of this new Christmas Hamper is to make sure everything is enjoyed and that the enjoyment is of a sufficient level that the selection is sought out by the recipient. As regular customers will know our Traditional Xmas range can be relied upon to offer exceptional quality of bakery items and this version is no exception. Our Preservative Free Mince Pies, locally produced caramel squares and Artisan Pudding lead a selection of foods which are unlikely to be left on shelves for long over Christmas.
